

Calling Rocky Hill Kids of all Ages!

The Rocky Hill Preservation Celebration Committee invites you to participate in a Literary and Arts Show:

History in Your Own Backyard

To mark the 30-year anniversary of Rocky Hill's Historic District designation, we will be having a weekend-long celebration on October 8 & 9, 2011. Activities include inviting borough children of all ages to create an original poem or piece of art celebrating the rich history of our town.

Participants can write a poem or create a painting, drawing, collage, etc. between the sizes of 8.5" x 11" and 11" x 17". The theme is "History in Your Own Backyard": the people, houses, buildings and places in our Borough (past and present) that make it meaningful to you. Please include on the back of your submission your name, age, address and phone number. Entries may be dropped off at the Mary Jacobs Library through June 30th.

Entries may also be emailed as a PDF or JPG to:
rhpreservationcelebration@gmail.com

Questions? Call Melissa Bernardi at 688-1225

Poetry and artwork will be proudly displayed at the Amy Garrett House on Saturday morning, October 8, 2011 and at the Community Picnic Sunday afternoon, October 9, 2011! All participants and their parents are encouraged to attend the Sunday picnic and other weekend activities.
